Benefits of membership

Membership entitles members to vote at the Annual General Meeting in November, to receive a fixtures booklet, to hire the club house for private functions and to insurance protection if related to bona-fide club activities. Members receive regular email correspondence. Membership also provides a demonstration of support to one of the top clubs in the country at both junior and adult levels, and opportunities to become involved with the club in a variety of ways – see below. Playing members are also entitled to be considered for selection although membership itself does not guarantee selection.
